<input type="checkbox"/> NO OBJECTION AS RECEIVED. <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> NO OBJECTION SUBJECT TO AMENDMENTS MADE BY THIS OFFICE (in black pencil). REASONS ARE STATED BELOW.
We reviewed the briefing entitled, "Intelligence Support for Technology Transfer Activities," which we were told is a speech to be delivered on March 22, 1984. As noted above, we have no objection to release of this speech subject to the following deletions and substitute wording which we have also recorded on the briefing:
Page 7, last paragraph, delete on lines 3 thru 5: "is currently responding to about . . . investigating and reporting" and substitute "provides available information"; also on line 5, delete word "ultimate"; on line 6, add the letter "s" to "end-user" to make it plural. Reason: Security.
Page 8, line 3, delete acronym "COCOM" and substitute "the international commodities control"; second paragraph, delete entire paragraph: "Intelligence support . . . a later date."
Working Papers (VUGRAPH) no 9, headed SUBCOMMITTEE ON EXPORT CONTROL (EXCON), under first item delete third small bullet: "Preparation for COCOM List Review" and fourth small bullet: "COCOM List Review Negotiations (Paris)" and substitute as a new third small bullet: "Review of International and National Commodity Control Lists." Reason: Security.
With this, we confirm in writing these recommended changes that we gave to you by telephone earlier today.
